Principal’s Report

Lone Pine Commemoration
Thankyou to all who attended the Lone Pine Commemorative Ceremony yesterday.
Representatives from the Morwell RSL and Salvation Army were present along with parents and of course our students to officially recognise the plague laid beside the Lone Pine which is growing in our school grounds in recognition of the ANZAC’s who served in Gallipoli.
Two students, Billie L and Jaxon R did an outstanding commemorative reading and Mr Les Maher from the RSL read the Ode followed by the Last Post. Morwell Park will be represented and a wreath laid by School Captains on ANZAC Day.

Hercules
On Tuesday May 5 the Alpha Performing Arts group will be presenting ‘Hercules’ in our school gym.
Alpha Performing Arts typically put on a fantastic show and I would encourage all children to get involved. It may inspire our own performers auditioning for our school production to be held later this year.

Interactive Learning
The very popular Interactive Learning program recommenced last Friday.
Interactive Learning allows students to select activities from a wide range of options such as cooking, soccer, horse care, photography, cycling and various art craft activities.
Children work in multi year level groups and it’s a great opportunity for our students to participate in special interest activities.

Athletic Sports
Weather permitting the Athletic Sports has been rescheduled for tomorrow.
Weather forecasts are not favourable so please check the school’s facebook page or ring the school in the morning for further information.
Parents are invited to attend so weather permitting we would love to see you there.

School Council Meeting
Just a reminder to school councillors we have a meeting tonight commencing at 5.00 in the staff room.

Chris Joustra,
Principal.

TIPS FOR BUSY STUDENTS

Techniques for success.

- Lists help you to remember. Put them in a place where they will remind you of what you want to remember.
- Leave space between lines when making notes so that reading them is easier and additions can be made if needed.
- If something isn’t working out, don’t give up, just try another way.
- In tests, listen carefully to the teacher and read questions carefully.
- Don’t just highlight important points in reading. Try to recall them in your mind.

TIPS FOR BUSY PARENTS

- Be reasonable.
- Your feelings and actions will often be unconsciously imitated by your child. If you are in a good mood, so will your child. If you are cranky, it is likely they will be too.
- Communicate clearly with your child what you expect and what you won’t accept.
- Help younger children to become better organised by creating routines.
- Let your children sort out their own disputes among themselves unless they get out of control.
